THE CATHOLIC CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY OF ST. PETER

Announcing Our New Church Website!

We are excited to announce the release of our new church website! Here visitors, as well as parishioners, will be able to find information about our ministries, listen to recent homilies, and stay up to date with current parish events.

This new site is also the first step in a greater initiative to grow our church's online presence. More and more people in our community are online and we want to move forward in making connections with those around us so that we might reach them with the Good News!

We have taken the website to the next level: Our parish's website is more than just a great site, it is the successful implementation of all our ministries, groups, and committees. There is a whole section of the website dedicated to communication between all of us. It works like other social media: posting a status, joining groups, uploading pictures, writing on other's pages, etc. But it's better than other social media because here we can share our faith, announcements, support for one another, get to know each other better, and be an active participant in our parish family in a safe and loving environment!

We strongly encourage you to utilize the website daily! This forum gives you the opportunity to read new articles to enrich your faith, download bulletins and church ministry schedule, watch the homily, and pray the daily prayers on the "public" side of the website. As a parishioner of St. Peter Parish we truly hope you will officially join (login and register) the "private" side of the website as well as join all of the 'groups' to keep up with everything our parish online family has to offer!

This summer St. Peter will be hosting the community Vacation Bible School! This ministry can not be a success without our church family volunteers. Please prayerfully consider what part you are called to...

There will be more information to come! Contact the office if you are interested.

The Rice Bowl collection raised $407.18 for the Catholic Relief Services. Thanks to all who supported this ministry!

If you had church directory pictures taken, but did not place any additional orders, your complimentary photo is on the table with your name.

The "Little White Book" is on the table.

Dear Padre

April 8, 2018

When our priest raises the host during the consecration at Mass, a parishioner says out loud, "My Lord and my God!" Am I out of line to feel this isn't right?

The liturgical assembly at Mass isn't a random collection of individuals; rather, the faithful form a holy people to give thanks to God. "They are consequently to avoid any appearance of singularity or division... This unity is beautifully apparent from the gestures and bodily postures observed together by the faithful" (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 95-96). Moreover, unity is achieved in the vocal prayers and responses at Mass, "that, gathered into one body by the Holy Spirit," we "may truly become a living sacrifice in Christ" (Eucharistic Prayer IV).

The Eucharistic Prayer—the preeminent prayer of the Church—is voiced by the priest on everyone's behalf. All participate in the collective prayer by our acclamations throughout: the dialogue preface, Sanctus, memorial, and great amen. Here we express our belief in the mystery of faith and our unity in the Church's prayer.

The revised Roman Missal omitted the memorial acclamation, "Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again," because there's no equivalent text in the original Latin and also because it's more of a proclamation of faith than a prayer.

Likewise, "My Lord and my God" is a proclamation of faith that may be for some an entirely appropriate response for a believer as the host is raised, but the Church provides three communal prayers as acclamations immediately following the consecration. Any personal expression should be said quietly to preserve the unity of the Mass.
