Calling all High Schoolers and young adults! (incoming Freshman through college) It has been a couple of years since we have had an active group to participate in the Catholic Heart Work Camp mission trip...this is a life changing ministry where you take a week during the summer months to serve those in need. Right now we are trying to see how many would be interested in participating next summer in a trip (also looking for adult chaperones!). Please prayerfully consider if this is a ministry that you would want to take part in. Once we have determined if this is something we want to pursue for next summer, we will look at dates and locations. Turn in your information in the collection basket or bin outside of the office.

Dear Padre

May 27, 2018

Did Jesus know that he was God?

Everyone, Jesus included, has self-knowledge—at least in principle. For example, even though we know that we are individual human beings, we still find it almost impossible to formulate what that really means. Saint Thomas Aquinas explains that our knowledge of all things is conceptual—we make abstractions, express them in concepts, and think by combining these concepts. But self-knowledge is the one exception—it is intuitive knowledge, not conceptual, and extremely difficult to formulate in concepts.

Did Jesus know that he was God? Yes, intuitively. But if it's hard for us to express what we somehow sense as our basic humanity, imagine how difficult it would have been for Jesus to express what he profoundly grasped as his divine/human self-identity. His knowledge of his radical selfhood would have been a genuine self-awareness of who he truly was—both God and human—but he wouldn't have been able to express it in a conceptual way.

Jesus was able to build upon this profound, intuitive self-knowledge. Human beings perceive they are human early in life, but they know even more when they're forty than when they are twenty. A similar deepening perception took place in Jesus. Through life experiences, Jesus constantly discovered what being divine in human circumstances implied. That's why Hebrews 5:8 says he "learned obedience through what he suffered."

How wonderful it is to have Jesus, true God and true human, as our Savior.
