THE CATHOLIC CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY OF ST. PETER

All are kindly invited to spend time in prayer before our Lord in the Most Blessed Sacrament imploring him to heal all abuse victims, to reform the hierarchy and clergy, and to cleanse the Church of all evil. The Most Blessed Sacrament will be exposed on Friday, September 14, the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, beginning at 8 a.m. and concluding with Benediction at 4 p.m.

Please write to Most Reverend Daniel E. Thomas to encourage a full investigation of sexual abuse and immoral behavior for the healing of all victims. C/O of Diocese of Toledo, 1933 Spielbusch Avenue, Toledo, Ohio 43604.

Dear Padre

September 9, 2018

No one talks about mortal and venial sin any more. What is the difference?

A mortal sin, as its name suggests, is a serious or "deadly sin." Venial sins are less serious. We can judge the seriousness of a sin in two ways. The first is based on the matter of the sin, or what I actually did. For example, it is obviously more serious to assault a spouse than it is to lie about how fast I was going when I got stopped for speeding. Some things by their nature are objectively worse than others.

A second way to assess sin is subjectively so that the intent is more important than the act itself. Even if an act is relatively minor, it can be a mortal sin depending on why I do it. For instance, I might fail to lock the front door of a friend's house, which is not a serious sin in itself. It becomes serious if my intention in failing to lock the door is to leave the home open to burglary by an accomplice.

On the other hand, I might do something objectively serious (like betray an important confidence); but if I do it under coercion or without full understanding, my own moral culpability might be quite limited. The matter is mortal, but my own sin or moral responsibility is venial. Confessors often sort out the matter from the intent. It is not just what I do, but my freedom, understanding, and purpose in doing it.
