Area Happenings

Burger Bash Sunday Noon, May 2019

Sunday, May 19 we hope you'll stop by for a hamburger by Brookview Meats between 11 and 1. It's the 16th annual Burger Bash in the Rauhley Park Pavilion and many area churches are involved in the set up and serving. Area cattlemen have again raised a pen of steers for our faith-based community mission outreach. Volunteers donate feed and care for the steers and when they are sold every penny after expenses goes to a wonderful International ministry, Growing Hope Globally, formerly known as Foods Resource Bank.

Archbold's own Jim Rufenacht is now on that board and has been to see the difference our local efforts make half-way around the world. The Burger Bash ends one project year and kicks off another. Our community has averaged a gift of over $30,000 each of the last 15 years to a project we select locally from the global list provided. Please show your support by joining friends and family at the Burger Bash on the 19th. A free donation covers your picnic lunch.

THE CATHOLIC CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY OF ST. PETER

The Archbold FISH Pantry is a local organization which provides food and other necessary items to those in need. St. Peter parishioners have been generous over the years during our November food drive as well as providing toilet paper weekly.

If at all possible we would like to try to increase our toilet paper donations for this heartfelt outreach. For your information, the people who use the FISH Pantry services are only allowed 2 rolls (NOT PACKAGES!) per family. Think about how much a typical household uses and you can see how sadly under the norm that is...Hopefully an increase in donations will provide a greater supply to give out to those in need.

Thank you for your continued dedication to helping those in need!

Dear Padre

May 5, 2019

How is the martyrdom of the recently canonized St. Óscar Romero different from most?

In 1980, Archbishop Óscar Romero of El Salvador was gunned down by a right-wing assassin while celebrating Mass. Many believe he died defending the poor and for denouncing persecution by the repressive, military-controlled regime.

Traditionally, sainthood was reserved for martyrs slain in odium fidei—in hatred and persecution of the faith. People were given a choice of renouncing their faith, thus saving their lives, or holding onto their faith and dying.

Romero's death was different. We understand his martyrdom through the lens of triplex munus, meaning Jesus fulfilled his role of Messiah by serving as prophet, king, and priest in a hostile environment.

As prophet, Romero denounced oppression by the powerful. He became the voice of the voiceless. He called to conversion those responsible for social evils. Romero's martyrdom was also due to his loving service as king—a good shepherd or pastor of his flock, who came not to be served but to serve and give his life as ransom for many.

Finally, his martyrdom while celebrating Mass was the ultimate expression of priesthood. Romero offered the Body and Blood of the risen Christ at the altar, but also his own body and blood in memory of he who died on the cross. Following Christ's example, he sacrificed his own life.

Óscar Romero lived fully as Christ's follower, suffering death to fulfill his own mission as prophet, king, and priest. He walked the way of Jesus, the way of the cross, while embracing his own cross.
