SPEAKING OF THE DEVIL

Fr. Steve Schroeder who has been reading and studying on the satanic in the world, the evil role of the devil in society and country, and house blessings and exorcisms, will give a talk with questions on Tuesday, November 26 at 7:30 after Mass. Food and fellowship will follow in the hall.

Once again St. Peter will be participating with Fulton Country Christmas Cheer and St Vincent De Paul collections. We could us help cutting out tags before November 20, setting up the tree between Nov 21-23 and delivering the items to the fairgrounds in Wauseon and St Vincent De Paul in Fayette on December 9.

Please contact Kevin Seibert at 567-239-1316 if you can help. Thank you!

Dear Padre

November 17, 2019

I have a hard time accepting that my money for the Sunday collection may be used to compensate victims of clerical sexual abuse. Do I have to keep giving to my local parish, only to see my money pay for a sex scandal?

The money you give runs your parish and provides assistance to the poor, both locally and throughout your diocese. Scripture mentions the disciples offering money to meet the needs of the poor. The Catechism of the Catholic Church states: "The faithful also have the duty of providing for the material needs of the Church, each according to his abilities" (CCC 2043). Similarly, canon law reminds us that we are "obliged to promote social justice...and to help the poor," both signs of Christian charity (Canon 222).

While you give for the needs of your parish, it appears that these lawsuits create a real concern for you. For the most part, awards for lawsuits are paid from two main sources: insurance and the sale of unused property, such as office space, bishops' homes, and seminaries.

While we are pained by the revelations of clerical abuse, we must also understand the victims' need for healing. Money won't end their pain, but it may help a survivor who needs psychological counseling or someone who has difficulty working due to trauma. This is a devastating time in their lives, but the Church will continue to offer hope and claim its responsibility.
