SPIRITUAL ADOPTION WEEKEND

At the moment of conception a new and unrepeatable human being comes into existence, complete with his own unique set of DNA. Although he is only one cell, everything about this little person is already present: color of eyes, blood type, the height he will grow to be, color of hair-everything! He will play a role in his family and his community-a role only he can play! Nothing is added after conception to make him a complete human being. He already exists; all he needs is nourishment, a safe, warm environment, and most of all-love. His parents don't even know he exists yet. Pray for them to safely bring their baby to birth so he can fulfill the mission God has for him.

This weekend after Saturday and Sunday Mass you have the opportunity to attend Ministry Training, training for liturgical ministers based on the theology of ministry and general background for all ministers. Both men and women are welcome to all ministries. We believe that God calls us to ministry. Listen to God's call and join us TODAY. More information on Liturgical Ministry can be found here: <https://stpeterarchbold.com/ministries/liturgy-ministries/>

Refresher Course: involves hands-on training for one's chosen ministry and is required before one begins a new ministry or returns to ministry.

This session is for everyone! Whether you are already doing a ministry, interested in becoming a part of a ministry or are simply curious about what your options are. This session will answer your questions, give an overview, and train you to feel comfortable in your role at Mass. Please prayerfully consider what role(s) you are being led to!

Everyone has a calling...will you accept yours?

St. Peter Rosary Altar Society will be hosting the K of C Fish Fry Bake Sale on January 31 and February 14. If you would like to donate bake goods you can bring them to the K of C Hall after 2:00 pm on those dates. Anyone wishing to volunteer to work can contact: Lois Grime 419-388-7759 or Peg Hines 419-572-6135. Thank you so much for your support!

CONGRATULATIONS!!

Today is the day to make your SPIRITUAL ADOPTION Remember to take a prayer card...name your baby (or babies) and personalize this fight against abortion as you devote your prayers to saving the innocent!

Your 2019 contribution report can be found in your mailbox.

There are two plates left behind from the Cookie Walk in the kitchen.

Dear Padre

January 26, 2020

What are deacons' duties? Can they preside at wedding ceremonies? What about baptisms and other duties usually reserved for priests?

The Catholic Church has two kinds of deacons: transitional deacons, seminarians in the last stage of their studies for the priesthood, and permanent deacons, men who will remain deacons.

Transitional and permanent deacons can baptize, give homilies at Mass, give blessings (for example, the blessing of throats on St. Blaise's feast day), perform the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, and preside at wedding and funeral services where there is no Mass.

Neither type of deacon can administer the sacrament of reconciliation. They can visit and bless the sick, but they cannot anoint them. Deacons can distribute holy Communion, but they cannot consecrate the bread and wine.

Unlike transitional deacons, permanent deacons can be married. If a deacon's wife dies, he may not remarry except in certain circumstances, for example, if his children are still very young. Unmarried permanent deacons must remain unmarried.

Deacons are vital to the life of the Church. Many permanent deacons have families and full-time jobs in addition to their Church work. We don't thank deacons and their families enough for the many sacrifices they make for the people of God.
