Fairlawn

As members of our Christian community you are a part of the Fairlawn mission of care. Your support both financially and spiritually over the years is why Fairlawn has been so successful. This past April, Fairlawn cancelled the annual Spring Auction due to coronavirus concerns. It was our hope to reschedule the traditional event in late October. Unfortunately, with the uncertainty surrounding the coronavirus it is unlikely that we will be able to host an event as large as our traditional auction. This year Fairlawn is being challenged financially more than ever. We need your help. We ask that you prayerfully consider making a donation to Fairlawn to support our work and to serve those who have given so much throughout their lives. With you, Fairlawn Haven care Center can continue our commitment as a strong, faith-based organization. We will keep you updated on our plans. Until then we ask for your continued prayers and any financial support you can provide.

Donations can be sent to:

Your spiritually adopted baby weighs over one pound now, and his mother can feel his movement. Before this time he was too small for her to feel. Although he swam with ease in his watery world, he needed to be big and strong enough to kick hard against the outside wall and dent it—the inside wall of the uterus has little feeling. We are mid-way through the pregnancy now. Your prayers have helped your baby’s mother continue with her pregnancy and seek the help she needs.

Why is a lighted candle always in front of the tabernacle in my church?

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal states that "a special lamp...should shine permanently to indicate the presence of Christ and honor it." In the past, this candle was to be made of fine-quality beeswax. Now it can be fueled by either wax or oil, with no specification of the kind or quality (GIRM 316).

This use of a candle or oil lamp is not new to Christianity. We see the use of lamps near the Holy of Holies, a room in the Temple of Jerusalem. The vision of the heavenly throne room, portrayed vividly in the Book of Daniel, describes the use of lamps in front of the divine throne. In our own day, a perpetual flame honors the dead at the graves of the Unknown Soldier and President John F. Kennedy.

Some pastors ask parishioners to help purchase these candles and lamps. In return, these lamps are lighted for the intentions of donors, making these candles also acts of petition before the reserved Eucharist.
