Bishop Thomas said on social media, "Please join me in prayerful and joyful thanksgiving for the gift and grace of episcopal ordination, conferred fifteen years ago on the Memorial of Ss Joachim and Ann! Please pray the Lord sustain me to do his will, to shepherd the flock entrusted to my care, and to teach, govern and sanctify with zeal, humility and deep love in Jesus' name!"

Dear Padre

August 8, 2021

When I hear "Oh my God," should I tell the person he or she is breaking a commandment? When I see people at Mass in revealing or disrespectful clothing, should I say something?

When I was young, I went to a baseball game with my parents. While we were in line, a man cursed using Jesus' name. My mother said, "Oh, I don't think Jesus is playing today." She made her point, but I doubt she changed his future behavior.

I don't think we're obliged to evangelize by calling out someone who is using God's name in vain. I hear someone cursing many times in public. Depending on the situation, I might say something simple like, "You know, there are children here." Sometimes people apologize and stop; other times they tell me to mind my own business, using even more choice words, at which point I walk away. But we're under no obligation to do this, and always be very careful about confronting strangers about anything.

As for appropriate dress for Mass, this is a problem in many parishes. I wouldn't say anything to the person wearing the disrespectful or revealing clothing. Instead, ask your pastor whether your parish or diocese has a dress code. If they do, ask him why it's not being enforced. If there is no dress code, ask him if you can form a committee to establish one.
