Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time
Weekend of November 12/13, 2022

In today's Gospel Jesus suggests that his disciples must be prepared to suffer ridicule, persecution and perhaps even death if they are to follow him. Sometimes we may wonder if enduring ridicule and scorn are what we really signed up for when we received the sacraments of initiation. Would we not rather sneak through life as painlessly as possible? Good stewards take their faith seriously and find comfort in the closing words of today's Gospel: "You will be hated by all because of my name but not a hair on your head will be destroyed. By your perseverance you will secure your lives." Let us make it part of our daily prayer routine to ask the Holy Spirit for the courage to act in Jesus' name no matter the consequences

November is our month to collect items for the Archbold Fish Food Pantry. Below is a current list of needed items, but all items are welcome. Monetary donations are also welcome.

- Pineapple • Mandarin oranges • Diced tomatoes* • Tomato sauce and paste* • Canola or vegetable oil • Cake and brownie mixes • Peanut butter • Spaghetti sauce* • Pasta and rice sides* • Canned meat • Sugar-free items • Gluten-free items • Body wash* • Toilet paper • Facial tissues • Dish soap

* Desperately needed item

It is the goal of the Archbold Fish Pantry to assist low-income families on a short-term basis, particularly those in a crisis situation, and to share God's love and grace. All of the households receiving assistance have an Archbold mailing address, live in the Archbold school district, or attend a church which supports the Archbold Fish Pantry. We continue to make home deliveries, offer no-contact pickup at the pantry, and only allow a few shoppers at one time into the pantry to choose their own items on pantry days. We also help families with rent, utility payments, car repairs, or prescriptions. The Archbold Fish Pantry is completely reliant on the donations from generous people in our community. Thank you for your support in offering help and hope to those in need.

Message from the Rosary Altar Society:

We are now collecting donations for the SILENT AUCTION which will be held on Sunday, December 4 in conjunction with the parish potluck and cookie walk. (We'll also have rolls and coffee available that day if you enjoy the fellowship but don't wish to participate in the potluck!) There is a table in the hall for those donations. Bidding will start on November 15 and continue until the day of the potluck!

Thank you to everyone who donated their SuperValu receipts. We have just received a check for $147.94. This is such an easy way to earn money for our parish! Please continue to collect your receipts and put them in the designated box on the table.

Dear Padre

November 13, 2022

I was taught that when we die, we will spend some time in purgatory and then go on to heaven. I notice some of our hymns say we will be raised on the last day. I'm confused.

It is not surprising that there is confusion about the issue. There is a difference between judgment and resurrection, even though they are obviously connected. Some people think of these two things occurring at the same time. Our Catholic teaching separates them, to some extent.

The teaching says there are two kinds of judgment. The first is that which occurs at our death and is called "the particular judgment." In this judgment we may go to heaven, hell, or purgatory. The Catechism of the Catholic Church puts it this way: "Each man receives his eternal retribution in his immortal soul at the very moment of his death, in a particular judgment that refers his life to Christ" (CCC 1022).

The second judgment is the general judgment that occurs at the end of the world. The resurrection of the body will take place at this judgment when our particular judgment is confirmed and our soul and body are reunited. The hymns that say we will be raised on the last day refer to the general judgment, as do most of the Scripture passages about judgment.
