This week, the Catholic Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus on Friday, June 12. The devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus has its origins on the 1600s. It invites us to meditate on Jesus' Passion and Death, to grow in love for him.

The next day, June 13, the Church celebrates the Memorial of the Immaculate Heart of the Blessed Virgin Mary to express that these two hearts are inseparable and that Mary always brings us closer to Jesus.

We invite you to consecrate your family to the protection of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary by praying this Prayer of Consecration together.

Consecration of the Family to the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary

Most holy Hearts of Jesus and Mary, united in perfect love, as you look upon us with mercy and caring, we consecrate our hearts, our lives, our family to you. We know the beautiful example of your home in Nazareth was meant to be a model for each of our families. We hope to have, with your help, the unity and strong, enduring love you gave to one another. May our home be filled with joy. May sincere affection, patience, tolerance and mutual respect be freely given to all. May our prayers be filled with the needs of others, not just ourselves and may we always be close to your sacraments. Bless those who are present, as well as those who are absent, both the living and the dead; may peace be among us and when we are tested, grant us the Christian acceptance of God's will. Keep our family close to your Hearts; may your special protection be with us always. Most Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary, hear our prayer.

Coffee and rolls will be served after Mass today. Everyone is invited!

The OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation for Adults) is the Catholic Church's structured process for adults to learn, prepare, and be fully initiated into the faith. If you are interested in starting the spiritual journey of becoming Catholic, contact Fr. Bill.

Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Dear Padre

June 7, 2026

What is the significance of the Holy Eucharist in our lives as Christians?

The Mass should be understood as the celebration of our union—our communion—with Christ and his Church, which is the body of Christ. The Mass presumes participants have an existing personal relationship with Christ. We were united to Christ through baptism. We have received his Holy Spirit, empowering us to carry out Christ’s threefold mission: the prophetic mission of announcing his message and denouncing sin; the priestly mission expressed in a life of prayer, self-sacrifice, and participation in the liturgy; and the kingly/servant mission expressed in service to God and neighbor.

For the Eucharist to be meaningful, we must first experience a personal encounter with Christ—one that leads to personal conversion and a decision to live as disciples in community. Indeed, the Eucharist both celebrates and deepens our communion with Christ. The Eucharist also deepens our communion with fellow believers. “The Eucharist’s particular effectiveness in promoting communion is one of the reasons for the importance of Sunday Mass,” wrote Pope St. John Paul II in On the Eucharist in Its Relationship to the Church (Ecclesia de Eucharistia), 41. Without this loving, sharing community, the Mass becomes empty. Whenever we attend Mass and receive holy Communion, we should ask ourselves: Are we really in communion with Jesus and the body of Christ, his Christian community? If not, then we should seek this broader communion in our lives. ●
